

WACRI Annual End-of-Year Off-Site Party and Speaker Dinner Meeting

When: Thursday, June 5, 2008

The place: The Haffenreffer Museum of Brown University – a unique venue
(www.brown.edu/Facilities/Haffenreffer)
300 Tower Street (off Rte.136), Bristol, RI 02809.

The time: 4:00 PM - 9:00 PM (dress is casual, dress warmly)

Schedule: (no Great Decisions program this evening; starts again in Sept.)

4:00 - 6:30 Museum Tour, explore grounds, or 4:00 - 6:30 Socialize - cash bar for beer, wine and soda;
snacks provided.
6:30 – Special catered Buffet Dinner and a special mini-
WorldQuest competition for dinner attendees.
Exciting prizes for the winning table.
7:30 Presentation by speakers below.

Speakers:

James G. Blight, Professor, Watson Institute, and
Janet M. Lang, Adjunct Professor, Watson Institute

Acclaimed authors of the book, The Fog of War: Eleven Lessons from the Life of Robert S. McNamara, made into an Academy Award-winning documentary. James and Janet brought this film to a recent international film festival in Iran – insightful and first-hand report on their experiences there.

Topic: Report on their recent trip to the 26th International FAJR Film Festival in Tehran, Iran. Their book and Academy Award winning film and the huge and popular reception in Iran.

Reservations: Call 228-8657 by June 2, 2008. Members $35 Non-Members $40

Directions: From Providence, Route 195 East to MA Exit #2 (Route 136 toward Newport, RI). Go south on Rte. 136 past Bristol Police station on right, for 7.5 miles. Turn left at the Haffenreffer Museum sign onto Tower Street. The Museum is up this small, narrow road 1.4 miles from 136. From Mt. Hope Bridge, bear right after Roger Williams University onto 136; turn right at Haffenreffer Museum sign onto Tower Street. Call Museum at 253-8388 if you get lost.